It is established between heaven and earth. My Son and I have agreed. My people, those who believe in Me through My Son shall be one. Even as My Son and I are one, so shall My people be One in Us and one with one another.

In My heavenly Kingdom, eternally, you shall be complete and perfect in our oneness. Yet even now you are becoming one. Now, your oneness is a sign, a testament, that I and the Son are one and that I have sent Him as your Savior.

Will you die to self will that this testament may be fulfilled? For it is in death that a testament, or will, goes into effect. Will you incline your heart toward My Son? Toward Me? Toward one another?

As you incline yourself toward Christ, you become one with His nature. As you yield to this union, you take on the essence of His heart toward Me. You enter into the oneness that We share. You enter into Our heart for the world, for others. My love for others is expressed through your oneness with My heart.

It is because of this union I exhort you to love one another, to bear one another's burdens, and to study the things that make for peace, and do things that edify others. It is because of this union that your love for one another, or the lack of it, is a reflection of your love for Me. It is in view of oneness that I judge that "inasmuch as you have done it to the least of these, My brethren, you have done it unto Me."

Are you seeking to know My will for your life? It is always My will that you yield to the draw upon you to be One with Me. Take steps to affirm the oneness you have in Christ with others who acknowledge Him as one Lord. Yes, be one with those who share in one faith, one baptism, one Spirit, one hope. For I am the one God and Father of all.

Seek to know Me as above all. I am beyond your comprehension and that of all others. Seek to know Me as through all. I will open the eyes of your understanding to recognize Me at work in all others. Seek to know Me as in all. I will disclose my nature to you as you see Christ expressed in those who believe in Me through My Son.

Oneness in Me is true for all who identify with My nature and are being transformed by it. In oneness there is no distinction of status; there is only a multi-faceted display of My manifold nature.

Testimonies from Breakfast Seminars

Navigating Your Business Through A Turbulent Environment (He guided them to their desired Haven - Psalm 107:30)

I had the opportunity to attend the first Navigating Your Business Breakfast Seminar in April. We discussed the scripture passage from Mark 6:30-56 where Jesus instructed the disciples to cross the Sea of Galilee. I had heard about the disciples crossing the Sea of Galilee since I was a child, but for some reason that morning it seemed to be a new revelation to me! I had forgotten they crossed at night. It seems like the storms that we face are magnified at night, yet He is faithful. The disciples were afraid, yet they kept rowing. I realized a powerless boat is more likely to capsize. We must continue to do what He has called us to do in spite of the storm. We must keep rowing and keep pressing forward. Jesus came to them at night, but they didn't recognize Him until they heard His voice. They had heard that voice before! In the storm, at night, with high seas that voice was so comforting. Jesus voice changed everything. The seas calmed. The disciples fears dissipated and they felt safe once again.

Jesus is the same today. He is with us in the midst of every storm or crisis we face. If we listen for his voice and hear His instructions it will change everything. The disciples did make it to the other side. He guided them to their desired haven. They found rest on the other side .

I am so grateful for the words of wisdom and collective discernment that were present at the breakfast meeting. I will look back on this as one of those very special times of interaction with some very special people.

"Thanks for inviting me to the 'Navigating Your Business Seminar'. I enjoyed the break from the regular business routine and appreciated the balance between the teaching provided and the exchange with other business owners. It's always good to break away and seek God's instructions for business."

Frank Bewersdorff
Vice President, Binkley and Hurst LP

"I am always appreciative of the approach that TTWM takes when conducting this type of event. I value the Biblical wisdom and discernment that emerges when the three of you are flowing together. Interaction with others of common purpose/desire is also fruitful. I experienced some new understanding and growth. This was time well invested!"
