

Marvelous in Our Eyes

Jesus as Revealed in the Psalms

Even before the first morning dawned on earth, the Trinity had a plan for God the Son and His newly created Bride, how He would rescue her from her enemies and woo her into a life with Him for eternity—and the torment He would have to suffer so He could win His cherished lover. Poets of ancient times heard the whispers of Messiah, the yearning of His heart to draw His people unto Himself. We find recorded in the Psalms this sigh that longs for the marvelous day when all things in heaven and earth will be brought together under the head of our Bride-Groom, Jesus Christ.

Key Passage:

*The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone.*

*This was the LORD'S doing;
It is marvelous in our eyes.*

*This is the day the LORD has made;
We will rejoice and be glad in it.*

– Psalm 118:22-24 (NKJV)

For each lesson, review and meditate on the designated passage, allowing the Holy Spirit's guidance in answering the following questions. Record your insights.

1. What beautiful and marvelous aspects of Jesus are revealed in this Psalm?
2. In what way(s) did New Testament writers apply these truths?
3. What is the Father calling you as a wise builder to embrace in response to these truths?
4. How is the Holy Spirit prompting you to apply these truths within your community (family, congregation, business, ministry) so that you may continue to glorify Jesus Christ as you fulfill your calling?
